

Kurzvita

Andreas Huber is Scientific Director Life Science and Senior Investment Manager at Bayern Kapital. His background is in biology which he studied at the Technical (TUM) and the Ludwig Maximilians University (LMU) in Munich. Additionally, he obtained a degree in Business Administration and Economics.

Prior to Bayern Kapital he worked as an Analyst for a Munich-based Venture Capital company and as Business Development Manager with a Medtech-Software-Start-up.

Bayern Kapital is a Venture Capital company, founded in 1995 by the Bavarian government and invests-always together with other investors- in young, innovative high-tech companies in Bavaria.

Since 1995 Bayern Kapital has invested over 300m EUR in more than 270 companies, with a focus on Life Science and IT/Internet Start-ups.

Bayern Kapital currently has 385m EUR under management.