

Dr. Crnoja-Cosic, Director New Business Development and Member of the Management Team at Kelheim Fibres has more than 20 years of experience in fibre and application development as well as in business development. She has an enormous wealth of experience as well as a comprehensive network. Customized and market-oriented solutions, cross-company cooperation along the value chain and constant attention to long-term industry and particularly to textile and non-wovens trends shaping her career path and are the essential feature of her work.